THE CALIFORNIA OUTLOOK

Uppermost in the people's minds is the subject of crop prospects, says the Sacramento Bee, and it is gratifying to note the fact that the late rains brought joy and contentment to many thousand homes throughout California wherein the gloom of despondency had begun to set in about the family board. A wonderful impetus has been given to all kinds of crops, and the country is now rich and heavy with verdure. The rains came too late to revive the crops in a few localities, but the area over which there will be a total failure is not large. Where half a crop was looked for there will be, perhaps, two-thirds, and in the more favored districts the yield will be heavier per acre than usual. On the whole, it may not be claiming too much to say that there will be—with later Spring showers—a two-thirds crop. Some persons think there will be more, and some less; at all events, there will be enough to insure a large surplus for export, and the season generally promises to be one of unusual prosperity. The Gridley Herald says that even Colusa, where the majority of ranchers last week feared that their grain lands would not produce feed for their stock, is now expected to garner the largest crop raised for many years. The greater portion of the San Joaquin valley will, it is estimated, yield an average crop. Butte, however, is destined to lead the van this year, judging from the present outlook. Three-fourths of the Summer-fallow acreage will yield a large average; the remainder will turn out almost if not quite an average crop, while the Winter-sowing will average a three-fourths crop throughout. Stanislaus county, through the Modesto Herald, puts in a claim for precedence. It is said that she will again roll up the largest wheat crop of any county in the State. The average sown is larger than ever before, and the west side, which was partially lost last year, will add largely to the total amount. The Solano papers declare that their will be the banner wheat-growing county, all of which contrasts strangely and pleasantly with the reports of two weeks ago.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

There will be a revival of mining in Nevada this Summer, says the Grantsville Bonanza—a boom that will make everyone smile. It is a mistake to imagine that this State is played out as a producer of the precious metals. As the steam horse advances new and prosperous mining camps will spring into existence, old camps that have been deserted and camps that are dragging out a fitful and dreary life will once more be the scene of prosperous and happy times.

The Immigration Bureau reports that 1,342 immigrants arrived in California during the past week. Of this number 260 went to British Columbia, the remainder locating in this State. A colony of Swedes settled in San Luis Obispo county during last week, while part of a colony, just arrived from Colorado, sought homes in the same section.

Sacramento Bee: George Conkling shot his sister's paramour rather than Haverstick broken over his own head. The culprit who was responsible for the above now lies peacefully under the daisies.

The first Star Route trial lasted 15 weeks. The eighteenth week of the second trial began this morning, and the end still appears to be a long way off.

Who is to Blame?

CHICAGO, April 3.
 A Washington special says: Commander Mullen of the Ashuelot will probably be court-martialed in Washington. It seems that he was dismissed from the navy 15 years ago for drunkenness, but was reinstated in 1876. He failed to pass his examination as Commander, but was retained in the service.

EASTERN DISPATCHES.

[ASSOCIATED PRESS.]
The Jeannette Inquiry.
 WASHINGTON, April 3.
 The Jeannette Court of Inquiry met at noon, and fireman Bartlett testified that he had no charge to lay or special condemnation to offer regarding any officers or men. Melville made as thorough search for the missing parties as could be made under any circumstances.

The Judge Advocate stated that he had received a telegram from D. F. Collins of Minneapolis stating that he had not been notified of the arrival of Bartlett; that he had mailed a list of questions to be asked in behalf of his brother, and requested the court to wait until the receipt of his communication, as he insisted upon a full and thorough examination. The court thereupon adjourned until to-morrow, at which time the letter will probably be received from Dr. Collins. The President of the court directed that the other survivors be instructed to remain here until examined upon the questions to be submitted by Collins.

The Supreme Court on a Railroad Tax Suit.

WASHINGTON, April 2.
 A Supreme Court decision was rendered to-day in the tax case of the Memphis & Charleston Railroad Company against the United States, brought here upon a writ of error from the United States Circuit Court for the Western District of Tennessee. This was a suit instituted by the United States to recover taxes alleged to be due from the company under the revenue acts of 1862, '64 and '66, on account of interest coupons and dividends paid between July 1, 1862, and January 1, 1863. The judgment of the Circuit Court is reversed and cause remanded for such proceedings not inconsistent with the opinions of the Supreme Court as justice may require. The opinion is by Chief Justice Waite.

A Novel Lawsuit.

NEW YORK, April 2.
 A suit presenting some novel features was brought to trial to-day. The plaintiff is Cornelius Brinkerhoff and the defendant Sarah S. Perry, his divorced wife. Brinkerhoff inherited a large fortune some years ago, and, as he admits, became a drunkard. In 1868 he gave his wife what he thought was a trust deed for his estate. This was in reality a deed of gift. His wife procured a divorce and he was left penniless. He now sues, having reformed, for the return of his property.

A Profitable Bond Robbery.

NEW YORK, April 2.
 Wall street was disturbed to-day when it was announced that valuable securities, the property of E. B. Treat, publisher, had been stolen, and warning the public against their purchase. Treat's office was visited by burglars, who broke open the safe and carried off the booty they could lay hands on. The securities comprise $5,000 in Metropolitan first mortgage bonds, $2,000 in the Ohio Central, 50 shares of New York Central, 50 shares of Metropolitan stock, and 1,015 shares of Michigan Central stock.

Elections Yesterday.

CINCINNATI, April 2—12:30 A.M.
 But five precincts of 60 in the city are yet fully reported. These show Republican gains. Unofficial reports gathered at the Lincoln Club indicate that the vote is close between Sadler and Stephens for Mayor. E. Shelby's election is assured by 3,000 to 5,000.

Indications at this hour are that the whole Democratic city ticket and four of seven, and perhaps five out of seven, Councilmen are elected.

CINCINNATI, April 3.

Unofficial returns show that the Democrats have elected their Mayor.

Lady Dixie Has the Floor.

LONDON, April 2.
 The Eton gentleman who stated recently that he saw Lady Florence Dixie the whole time she was standing on the spot where the alleged attack upon her was committed, and saw her walk away without anybody accusing her, has reduced his statement to writing and declares himself prepared to abide thereby.

Powder Mill Explosion.

HARTFORD, Conn., April 2.
 A double powder mill at Hazardville blew up this afternoon. It contained 400 pounds of powder, the force of which sent a 4000-pound bed-wheel a long distance. If the explosion had occurred ten minutes later there would have been considerable loss of life.

Murderously Mad With Jealousy.

ST. LOUIS, April 3.
 Albert Wing, a younger brother of Rumsey Wing, who was U. S. Minister to Ecuador under Grant's administration, shot and killed Joe Glenn, a clerk in a dry goods store, in presence of Essie Davis, a woman of the town. Jealousy was the cause.

This morning floods in Bear Lake valley washed out six bridges on the Oregon Short Line, temporarily impeding the running of trains. The damage will soon be repaired.

Suicide of a School-Teacher.

OMAHA, April 3.
 The body of Miss A. M. Church was found three miles north of Stanton, Nebraska, to-day. She was a school-teacher, and left Norfolk about January 1st, since which time nothing was heard of her until to-day. The body was badly mutilated, the face and breast being eaten off by wolves. She evidently committed suicide, as she wrote on an envelope directing her body to be sent to Park Mills, New York. Her parents live in Lawrence county, N. Y. No cause is assigned for the act.

The Apache Indian War.

DENVER, April 3.
 A Separ. N. M., special says: Col. Forsythe followed the Indians from the Southern Pacific Railroad crossing to the Chihuashua mountains in Arizona. Near Cottonwood Springs the Indians attacked a wagon containing ranchman's supplies, and wounded two men, after which they took to the hills, where the soldiers are unable to follow the trail. Col. Forsythe will remain there several days, scouting the surrounding country.

Arrests in Ireland.
 CORK, April 3.
 Morgan, an employee of the Cork Steamship Company, has been arrested, accused of using his position to facilitate the carrying of arms and explosives between England and this city. He is also a member of the Temperance Club, of which O'Herlihy, arrested Thursday, charged with conspiracy to murder, is President. Documents were found on Featherstone, the American who was arrested with O'Herlihy, and said to be a newspaper writer, showing him to be in direct communication with O'Donovan Rossa. Letters were received from Rossa giving elaborate orders with regard to explosives similar to those found in the box carried by Dennis Deasy, arrested at Liverpool Thursday, on his arrival from this city.

The proclamation contains a warning to all persons that they shall, if valuing their personal safety, keep at a distance from the Czar during the ceremony of coronation. The pronouncement concludes with these words: "We will strike once more for the freedom of Russia." The proclamation is printed in letters of red and bordered with stripes of the same color.

A Monkey in the Wrong Place.

LONDON, April 3.

A Divorce Granted.

ST. LOUIS, April 3.
 Rusy H. Tevis was to-day granted a decree of divorce from his wife, Kate R. Tevis. It arose from the shooting of Frank Inglehart by Tevis as he was leaving a notorious establishment with the latter's wife in November last. Inglehart was wounded in the arm and until recently was an inmate of the hospital here. All the parties are highly connected. Tevis is a relative of the San Francisco capitalist of that name.

TAILORING

ESTABLISHMENT.
 MY REPUTATION AS A TAILOR is already established. "The Boss Tailor" lives in all country towns. They advertise shop-worn auction goods; they dispose of cloths not saleable in the larger cities, and are continually trying to mislead their patrons by false representations. Reno is no exception to the rule. She has a "Boss Tailor," but look at a suit made by the Virginia street "Boss" and you will immediately see the point.

MY STOCK

Is carefully selected. It is of the very best of Foreign and Domestic Manufacture and I am prepared to make suits of the latest style, cut from the finest goods, at prices never before equalled. My work speaks for itself. I guarantee a fit in every case. Call and examine my samples and prices. Leave your measure and be happy. Don't be misled by the "Boss." TIMBER LAND.

The Government Looking After Trespassers on the Public Domain.

Erastus Bond, Government timber agent, has been in Susanville recently, says the Advocate, looking after parties who have been cutting wood on government land. This will be stopped by him, and all those engaged in the wood and lumber business will be compelled to buy the timber in the future. It is eminently right that the law relating to timber cutting on government land should be enforced, for if the destruction of timber continues at such a rate as it has in the past it will be but a few years until our large forests are entirely devastated. Many trees are felled simply for the limbs, and the body allowed to decay. If parties engaged in the lumbering and wood business buy their timber, they will be very careful that the entire tree cut down is utilized, and that none of the young trees are destroyed.

MINGLING STOCK.

Benefit From Allowing Various Animals to Feed Together.

Stock to be perfectly healthy must have an opportunity of mingling with other living things of various kinds. The old idea of the healthy effect goats have upon stable horses is only one phase of a great truth, that it takes the emanations of all active life to perfect every other life.

Cattle should be pastured near or in conjunction with hogs and horses. The action of one upon the other is always beneficial; and the young, playful and sociable, always make friends with each other, in such a way that much future inconvenience may be spared the owner.

A Popular Resort Projected at Walker Lake.

It is reported that a company is being formed to build two hotels at Walker Lake, one at each end, and also a steamer to make daily trips between the two points. It would no doubt be a good speculation, as the lake is one of the most attractive on the coast, being placid, full of gamey trout, and frequented by vast flocks of ducks, geese and pelicans, besides gulls innumerable, but where the latter deposit their eggs is a puzzle to those who have often tried to find them. At Mono Lake gulls' eggs are gathered by the bushel every year, but they cannot be found at Walker.

Reward of Merit.

Report of the Verdi school for the month ending March 30th: Whole number of days attendance, 557; whole number of days absence, 34; whole number of boys enrolled, 18; whole number of girls enrolled, 19; total, 37; percentage of attendance, .93. Roll of honor—Emma Grandchamp, Carrie Bates, Nancy Laughton, Katie Laughton, Ellen Gordon, Annie Gordon, Jessie Ford, Maria Bacon, George Foulks, Charlie Courter, Willie Hiller, Jimmie Henry, Bertie Walton, Jimmie Selby, Nelson Grandchamp, Claud Merrill. ADDIE PARK, Teacher.

The C. & C. Road.

Last Sunday morning the regular passenger trains of the Carson & Colorado road commenced to run through to Bishop Creek, about 230 miles south of Mound House. The probabilities are that Bishop Creek will be the southern terminus for the next three months, when the end of the line will be established at a point further south, perhaps near Independence or Lone Pine.

Farmers Well Pleased.

The valleys are pretty well soaked with rain and the mountains are white with snow, says the Silver State. Grass and grain are at least three weeks in advance of what they were a year ago, and no more complaints are made about the drought. With occasional rains and moderately cool weather in April and May, a good grain crop will be assured.

Pulling Tramps.

Officers Mershon and Green last night arrested the tramps, who were having a nice time in a box-car side-tracked near the planing mill, and lodged them in jail. The nomads are getting numerous and make no bones of bursting open a car when they want shelter from the wind.

Railroad Iron.

Nine car-loads of rails went south this morning by Thrall's train for the Carson and Colorado road, which is now being pushed forward at a rapid rate. Twelve car-loads of old rails also went west on the Central Pacific, to be worked up at the Sacramento shops.

A Thousand Dollars Reward.
The administrator of the estate of George P. McConkey offers $1,000 reward "for the arrest and conviction of the murderer, or murderers, of said McConkey." It is generally believed that McConkey committed suicide.

JOTTINGS.

Minor Occurrences in and About Town.

Fishermen are filing their hooks again.
The County Treasury contains about $29,000.

The passenger business was quite light this morning.

Louis Dean is still feeding about 450 head of beef cattle.

The Fogus flour mill will be completed in a short time.

The Supreme Court of Nevada convened yesterday morning.

The coinage at the Carson Mint for March was $238,000.

Theatrical matters in the near future promise to be very quiet.

Twenty men were knocked off in the V. & T. car shops Saturday.

Cottontail rabbits are getting very frisky on the outskirts of town.

Steamboat Springs are red-hot again—hot enough to scald a hog.

Brookins' wooden Dutchman had his picture taken and feels very proud of it.

The mills along the Carson river are making regular bullion shipments to the Mint.

Coal for the West and lumber for the East are noticeable among the freight movements.

Freight and passenger cars, it is said, will be scarce this Summer.

So will Mulcahy's excursions.

The farmers in Lassen and Modoc counties are puzzling their brains about how to construct a cricket-proof fence.

There are seven feet of snow at the Summit and more coming down. It looks as if the creeks and rivers would be well supplied this season.

A young girl can get employment to assist in doing light housework in a small family by applying at the GAZETTE office. See 50-cent column.

The morning emigrant train was pretty well covered with snow.

About midnight they struck a lively little storm. The express was also well doped.

Two new locomotives for the Carson and Colorado railroad, to take the places of those now in use and overworked, are daily expected at Carson City.

Visitors, prospectors and tourists of all sorts are heading for the southern country, which is increasing in life and business, day by day, as the C. & C. progresses.

People may feel big and yet not answer the requirements of the lady who advertised that she had a very nice bed-room to let to a lady eight feet by 12.

It is again threatened to rebuild the Coats Tavern. It ought to be straightened up or boarded up in some manner. As it stands now it is an unsightly nuisance.

It is still storming in the hills, and we may yet see a grand disturbance of the elements. The barometer is jumping up and down with surprising uncertainty.

A. J. Clark received yesterday a large invoice of evergreen millseed, also a choice lot of groceries.

Farmers can be supplied with the valuable seed by sending to Mr. Clark.

A prospector claims to have discovered a seven foot vein of plum-bago not far from Reno. Such a find would be very valuable, as the mineral is getting scarce, while the demand for it is increasing.

Cattle shipments are getting down to small affairs comparatively; but notwithstanding it has been said, for two months past, that beef animals are scarce and hard to be got, buyers manage to dig up nice little bunches when they want them.

A well known colored gentleman in Reno claims that he has been thoroughly cured of inflammatory rheumatism by carrying a tin kettle around on his arm. He tries to explain how it came about, but breaks down before he gets through. But he has faith in the efficacy of his kettle.

There is something fascinating about a haunted house. Eureka is overdone with spirits that do considerable table-pounding, but the Base Range can't hold a candle to Reno's supernatural layout. Here we have a regular ghost that is making a great stir among those who have a chance to see it.

Frank Perkins is going into the frog business, having imported several dozen croakers with lungs like a blacksmith's bellows. He intends to propagate them and in a few months have plenty to eat. It would be a good idea to cross them with his monkey, Snider, to see what the output would be.

Hoffman rolled a barrel of beer into the GAZETTE office to-day, since which time the printers have been entirely adrift. It is so seldom they have an opportunity to fill their tanks that they nearly drowned themselves on this occasion. But then Hoffman's beer is a wholesome medicine and no evil results will follow. If you want to know how his beer tastes call at the brewery and sample it.

That Boy Babe.

It seems that the action taken by the Board of Commissioners yesterday relative to Mrs. Hartung's adopted babe was for the purpose of giving the lady a chance to obtain legal possession of the child. The county accepting him as its ward, thus giving him in charge of the authorities at the Orphans' Home, gives the Board of Commissioners the right to appoint Mr. and Mrs. Hartung the legal guardians of the wail for all time.

The Tribune says James G. Chesley and wife left Carson for San Francisco, where they expect to reside, on Saturday evening. Mr. Chesley is reported to have been offered a position in the Nevada Bank.

Isaac Hallet of Buntingville, who has been down the coast for two months looking for better health, found it, and came up on the morning express. He took the Honey Lake stage for home to-day a happy man.

Wm. Drouillard, proprietor of the Cedarville flouring mills, having spent a couple of days in Reno awaiting the arrival of his two daughters and niece from California, left for home to-day by private conveyance.

John Hallahan, well known in Reno from his connection with the English mill a few years ago, is residing at Hall River, Park county, Colorado, where he has such a lucrative position and fine prospects that he recently refused the Superintendency of a mill in the southwestern portion of that State at a salary of $350 per month.

Reno Guard Election.

At a meeting of Company C, First Regiment, First Brigade, N. S. M., presided over by Major F. M. Conn of Virginia City, the following gentlemen were elected for the ensuing year: Abram Moger, Captain; T. E. Laycock, First Lieutenant; E. L. Bidges, Second Lieutenant; S. J. Bryant, Second Lieutenant; S. J. Bryant, Secretary; M. J. Henley, Financial Secretary; S. J. Hodgkinson, Treasurer.

Fat Beesves.

The cattle weighed at Hymers' scales yesterday afternoon were the heaviest weighed this year, averaging 763 pounds a head. Horn & Chapman of Oakland bought them of Cook Bros. The beesves are remarkably fine and fat, and Oaklanders will no doubt thank Nevada for feeding them so well.

An Indignant Tramp.

Last night a tramp accosted a citizen and wanted ten cents with which to buy a package of cigarettes. When the citizen declined to bestow the coin on the ground that he himself did not smoke, the tramp indignantly remarked, "How do you expect a gentleman can get along without smoking?"

For the North.

Geo. Purde, agent for S. Jacobs, the tailor, left Monday for a business trip to the Northern country. He took samples and will take orders for all kinds of gents' furnishing goods, and measures for the latest styles of Spring and Summer suits. Mr. Jacobs is an enterprising man.

LASSEN COUNTY.

The Outlook for the Coming Season in the Hills.

Never since the settlement of Lassen were the prospects of the farmers of this county more gloomy than they were a week ago to-day, says a correspondent of the Record-Union. With a Winter just passed, unprecedented for its absence of snow or rain, Spring came upon us with hot, balmy days, the ground frozen, and comparatively little of the plowing or seeding done. As soon as possible the farmers went to work with a will, and although the mercury in the thermometer went up for days to from 70° to 80° in the shade, and the roads and fields became dry and dusty, still much was accomplished, as the many acres of black plowed fields will testify. For a time hopes of a portion at least of the "Wiggins" prophecy being fulfilled no doubt animated some and promised hope.

That "fizzle" having passed with the dropping of perhaps a quart of water on the entire county, the next recourse was abuse or supplication to the "clerk of the weather," who stood both quite well until last Monday, when he "let all bolts go" and came down with the rain in showers and torrents, with but few hours of cessation up to the present writing, and how long it will be continued "no feller can find out."

The rain, so far, has been a very warm one, but little snow having fallen—just about enough to whiten the tops of the higher hills.

The long-continued warm weather caused the grass to start, and now the hills and fields present a picture of living green, while the apricot and many of the peach trees are in bloom—a month at least ahead of former years. With the rain still pouring down, the assurance of good crops of grain, at least in this county, seems certain; but with this assurance there is a serious question being asked by all, and that is, "What is going to be the result of the crickets?"

From this valley, extending north and west through the entire county into Modoc, the hills are swarming with myriads of just-hatched crickets, about the size of a common house-fly. As they are said to develop in size very fast, and will soon take up their line of march, and eat almost everything in their line of travel, it certainly becomes a serious question for these mountain counties.

A Ripe Old Age.

Road Supervisor A. Thompson is celebrating the 74th anniversary of his birthday to-day. The old gentleman looks as hale and hearty as most men of 30. He has graded life's path so perfectly that he looks forward to the end of the road with pleasure.
